

PRESS RELEASE

Warning: Keep away from power grids

On the occasion of the extreme weather conditions hitting our country in the last days, HEDNO issued a stern warning for all citizens under no circumstances to approach conductors or other Grid components on the ground because there is very serious hazard for accident.

If a citizen detects a conductor or another component of the Grid on the ground, he/she should immediately inform the fault center of HEDNO or contact with the Police Station in the area.

Athens, September 29, 2018

Press Office